STATEMENT OF VETTING POLICY

Please read this statement carefully, before you complete the application form.

If the information is found to be incorrect, or incomplete in some areas we will not be able to offer you employment, or will need to terminate any temporary post we may have offered.

Having read and understood the document please sign the declaration below and return it with your completed application form.

The Company is committed to ensuring that it provides a first class service to its customers. It is essential that our recruitment procedures ensure that we select only suitable candidates for posts, which may have responsibility of protecting our client's premises and property. Thus, you will find that our application forms are extremely thorough and quite complex, after completion of this form we will carry out a detailed check of the information, your references and background.

The Company may check documents you provide as proof of identity under ultra-violet scanner for authenticity purposes to deter identity theft and fraud. Any that appear to be forgeries will be reported to the relevant authority.

This statement is provided to ensure that you are aware of our requirements, and have no objection to our confirming the details. These checks are rules agreed with the Security Industry regulatory bodies, and are part of our quality procedures.

References and background

We will check your employment history over the last 5 years, or since you left school, if that period is less than 5 years. Should there be gaps in your employment history through changing jobs, un-employment or self-employment, give the name of people of good repute who can vouch for your activity during the period, or the details of the Dept of Employment Offices at which you were registered. You should, in putting forward referees, first seek their permission, and let them know that we will be approaching them. We may also check your right to work in the UK in order to fulfil our obligations with regards to government legislation.

Criminal Offences

You are also required to state any criminal proceedings that may have been taken against you. You can ignore parking fines; however details of all other offences, including motoring, must be declared. Under the terms of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 we must, and will, ignore offences which occurred some time ago, and for which the time limits laid down in the Act, have now been passed.

Medical Requirements

You have been asked to complete a detailed medical history, and we can confirm that this information will be kept strictly confidential, and will only have an effect on your application if, in the judgment of the Company, your health may affect your ability to carry out the work now and in the future. We will need to satisfy ourselves that your standard of fitness, eyesight, hearing etc are sufficient to enable you to carry out the duties efficiently. If you have identified any health issues, we may refer you to an Independent Occupational Health Advisor who will assist us both with ensuring your fitness for work.

Consumer Information Check

The material facts completed on the application form will be used for a Consumer Information Check to be run against you. The results of this check will include confirmation of any aliases, full postal addresses for the previous 5 years, registration on the electoral roll, date of birth and details of any County Court Judgments and Bankruptcy Orders against you. All information disclosed on the results will be kept strictly confidential. Should any concerns be raised from the results of the Consumer Information Check, the Company reserves the right to withdraw any offer of employment. Please be aware that numerous credit checks may have an adverse effect on your credit rating.

Vetting

I have read and understood the information regarding the Company vetting procedure and can confirm that all details and material facts given on the application form are true. I acknowledge that any misrepresentation or failure to disclose material facts either during application or throughout employment may constitute grounds for immediate dismissal and/or legal action.

Data Protection

Information from this application form may be processed for purposes registered by the Employer under the Data Protection Act 1998. Individuals have, on written request and on payment of a fee of £10, the right of access to personal data held about them.

For the purposes of compliance with the Data Protection Act 1998, I hereby give my consent to Ward Security Limited processing the data supplied in this application form for the purpose of recruitment and selection.

I agree that the details contained within this application form and associated references and documents may be retained on file by Ward Security Limited for future referral as applicable.
